CAMBRIDGE, Mass. - The Georgia Southern rifle squad took down M.I.T. 4,468-4,369 Saturday morning at the DuPont Athletic Center to wrap up the fall season on a three-match winning streak. Freshman Ashley Judson won both disciplines and took home her fourth straight overall victory while Lydia Odlin wrapped up her career with a second-place finish.

In smallbore, Judson posted a season-best 196 in prone, which is tied for the fourth-best score in program history, one off the record. Odlin shot a 554 to take second place while Lillian Herring posted a career-best 185 in kneeling en route to a third-place finish. Gabby Morrow shot 536 to place sixth and Amelia Pierce shot a 532 to place eighth.

In air rifle, Judson led the way with a 580, followed by Morrow's 572 for second place. Odlin's 563 was good for third while Herring placed fifth with a 560 and Pierce posted a 556 to place eighth.

Judson picked up her fourth collegiate win, firing a 1,142 aggregate. Odlin's 1,117 placed her second in her final match. Morrow placed fourth, Herring was fifth and Pierce was finished seventh.

The match signaled the end of Lydia Odlin's career as the senior will graduate in December and begin life after college. She finishes her career as a member of two SoCon air rifle championships with career averages of 536.000 in smallbore (5th-best in program history), 571.450 in air rifle (3rd-best in program history) and 1,107.205 aggregate (3rd-best in program history).

Words From Coach Worman:

"The team has impressed me with how professional and efficient they are, mentally and physically, and the focus they bring to getting the job done. As the saying goes, 'a series of deeds, faithfully done, requires no less than does heroic effort.' Well, this trip has involved both the series of deeds and the heroic effort. The travel to Boston and back-to-back match days has called upon every ounce of stamina from every reservoir in their arsenal. They did their jobs well. I'm particularly proud of Lydia Odlin, who completed her last collegiate match with tenacity, excellence, hard work and determination. She is a leader on and off the line, and our hearts go with her into her next chapter."
